The Perfect Nation

Psalm 33:1-22 July 3, 2016

While our nation may be celebrating its birth tomorrow, it cannot celebrate its dependence on God. No nation on earth will long endure that does not depend on God. The Perfect Nation ...

1) ... has reverence for God.

The word "fear" means "to tremble" ...

- a) ... at the thought of punishment.
- b) ... at the sight of God's might.
- c) ... at the joy of salvation.

2) ... has Dependence on God's power.

a) Hezekiah's position .

b) Hezekiah's prayer .

3) ... has Hope in God's unfailing love.

a) Hope means to cast cares .

b) God is the object .

Happy Birthday America!

Nationalism vs. Patriotism

Out at camp this week, while discussing the raising of the flags, one person said, "When are we going to raise the Christian Flag over the American Flag?" This kind of national outcry is becoming more and more popular among certain folks. The issue really comes down to the debate between Nationalism and Patriotism. Nationalism and patriotism both show the relationship of an individual towards his or her nation. The two are often confused and frequently believed to mean the same thing. However, there is a vast difference.

Nationalism means to give more importance to unity by way of a cultural background, including language and heritage. Patriotism pertains to the love for a nation, with more emphasis on values and beliefs. Here are some quotes from some patriots of old. Enjoy.

"It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible." --George Washington

"It cannot be emphasized too strongly or too often that this great nation was founded, not by religionists, but by Christians; not on religions, but on the Gospel of Jesus Christ. For this reason peoples of other faiths have been afforded asylum, prosperity and freedom of worship here." --Patrick Henry

"We have staked the future of all our political institutions upon the capacity of each and all of us to govern ourselves, to control ourselves, to sustain ourselves according to the Ten Commandments of God." --James Madison

"There is a striking parallel between the condition of the country and the church. As the Constitution means little to Americans today, so too the Bible means little to the average church member. Church members generally are as ignorant of the Bible as are Americans of the Constitution. Too many people within our borders are Americans in name but un-American in their hearts and anti-American in their conduct. The church has a corresponding ailment, Christians in name, but in reality are only once -born children of Adam. The American spirit is sadly eroded today by distrust, by corruption in high places, by moral decay. It won't be restored merely by flag-wavings and drum-beatings and Fourth of July speeches. It may not be possible to raise a new crop of patriots in such shallow soil. It may take disaster to make us realize what we had. There is also a Christian spirit in the church that has that need. When in the nation and in the church we humble ourselves, pray, seek God's face, and turn from our wicked ways, then God will hear from heaven, forgive our sin, and heal our land." --Vance Havner

God Bless You!
