Serious about Holy Living

1 Peter 1:13-2:10

In a culture hostile to Christianity, we may be tempted to seek acceptance by adopting the sinful lifestyles of a secular society. Living for Jesus demands we reject the easy path and be serious about holy living.

1. As Obedient Children. (1:13-17)

- a. Live in God's grace .
- b. Reject your former lifestyle .
- c. Be holy in conduct .
- d. Anticipate accountability .

2. As Loving Brothers and Sisters. (1:18-25)

- a. Remember your redemption .
- b. Reveal your redeemer .
- c. Repair your relationships .

3. As Holy People . (2:1-12)

- a. Eliminate sin .
- b. Desire sanctification .
- c. Follow Jesus .
- d. Accept your identity .

e. Bear witness .

Conclusion:

Living a life of holiness isn't easy. There is a story about an artist. He was making a statue of an elephant out of a huge chunk of marble. Someone asks him, "How do you do it? How do you turn this piece of rock into a beautiful masterpiece?" The artist answered him and said, "I just chip away the pieces that don't look like an elephant."

The process of becoming like Jesus requires God cutting away all the stuff that doesn't look like Jesus. Are you willing to let God work in your life?

Code Words

This week I read a devotion taken from The Believer's Code - a 365-day devotional to help readers to build their lives on solid godly principles, written by Dr. O. S. Hawkins. Hawkins says God's Word is filled with blessings and insights that encourage, comfort, and bring joy. Our daily devotions should include diving into the riches of Scripture where we will discover Code Words that offer a challenge and practical suggestion to put your faith in action. Here are a couple Code Words Hawkins highlights concerning God's working daily in our lives to conform us to the image of His Son, Jesus Christ.

Code Word: Confession

Do not remember the sins of my youth... According to Your mercy remember me, For Your goodness' sake, O Lord. — Psalm 25:7

Confession agrees with God about our sin. What we camouflage as concern, God calls the sin of worry. What we refer to as righteous indignation, God calls the sin of anger. What we say is just an admiring glance; God calls the sin of lust in our heart. Confession gets open and honest with God, and there is no forgiveness without it.

We cheat on a business deal, and God asks, "What happened?" We reply, "Oh, it was the pressure of the economy." Someone gets into an illicit affair, and God asks, "What happened?" We reply, "It started as a friendship, and it just happened." But confession says, "I cheated someone... I was greedy" or "I perpetrated the sin of passion... I am to blame... I take responsibility." Confession agrees with God on the matter. It confesses, "I have sinned." The good news is that Jesus forgives.

Code Word: Camouflage

Be cautious today that you not make feeble excuses to camouflage your own sin. You can't fool God. He knows you, loves you, and is ready to forgive and forget.

Lord, I have sinned by _____. I'm not excusing or minimizing it. Please forgive and cleanse me. In Jesus' name, amen.

Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. — James 4:8

We must admit our need for forgiveness and ask God for it. True sorrow for our sin is essential for repentance. Cleansing our hands has to do with turning away from unwise actions. Purifying our hearts has to do with repenting of our ungodly attitudes. The actions of our hands are always a result of the attitudes of our hearts.

Clean hands and a pure heart are key to drawing near to God. That is why the psalmist asked, Who may ascend into the hill of the Lord?... He who has clean hands and a pure heart. — Psalm 24:3-4

That hill is Mount Calvary, where Jesus was crucified. Who can ascend this hill of sacrifice and substitution? Only Jesus, for He is the only One in all history who lived a spotless life.

Code Word: Clean

The actions of your hands today will be in direct proportion to the attitude of your heart. Keep your heart clean.

Lord, my heart is fixed on You today. In Jesus' name, amen.

God Bless You!

Bro. Allan
