Thank You Church Family

Ellen and I have been truly blessed with your kindness, prayers, and compassionate sympathy over the past week. You truly are our family in the Lord, and we love and appreciate you all! And when we add it all up, we feel so blessed to be in the family of God.

There was a young man who was feeling very proud of himself. As a brand-new college graduate he had taken all the CPA exams and passed with flying colors.

His father had been an immigrant to the U.S., and now owned his own little business. Filled with his newly acquired knowledge and with his self-importance, the young man began to criticize his father's way of keeping books.

He said, "Dad, you don't even know how much profit you've made. In this drawer you have accounts receivable. Over there are your receipts and all your money locked up in your safe. You don't have any idea how much you've made."

The father answered, "Son, when I came to this country the only thing I owned was a pair of pants. Now your brother is a doctor, your sister is an art teacher, and you are a C.P.A. Your mother and I own our home. We have a car, and we own this little business clear and free. Now add that up, subtract the pants, and all the rest is profit."

Add it up, folks. That's exactly what we need to do, too. Add it all up. We came into this world with nothing but the eternal soul that God gave us. Every-thing else is a profit of blessing.

The story is told of a poor man who was given a loaf of bread. He thanked the baker, but the baker said, "Don't thank me. Thank the miller who made the flour." So he thanked the miller, but the miller said, "Don't thank me. Thank the farmer who planted the wheat."

So he thanked the farmer. But the farmer said, "Don't thank me. Thank the Lord. He gave the sunshine and rain and fertility to the soil, and that's why you have bread to eat."

You see, regardless of how sophisticated, how advanced we may be, we still can't create a kernel of corn or wheat. That has to come from God. God gives us the things we need in order to live on this planet. That is why it is so important that we are reminded often that God blesses us through His people. We need the reminder because it forces us to add it all up and recognize where all these things we enjoy actually come from.

Winston Churchill used to tell about the sailor who rescued a drowning boy. He pulled the boy out of the water, revived him and sent him on his way. That afternoon the boy and his mother were walking down the street and they met the sailor. The boy told his mother, "That's the man who saved me!" The mother immediately turned to the sailor and asked, "Is it true? Did you pull my boy out of the water this morning?" The sailor replied, "Yes, ma'am, I did."

But to his surprise, instead of thanking him, she shook her finger in his face and demanded, "Well, where's his cap?"

We recognize you as a gift from God. Thanking you – you have been blessed by God to be a blessing to us. We love you!

Bro. Allan ☺
